22. The Prize will be delivered within 28 days of the Prize draw.

Publicity and privacy

23. To the extent permitted by law, by entering into the Competition, you agree that if you are a Prize winner the Promoter may use your name and the information in your completed entry for its publicity and/or business purposes. The Promoter may also be required by law to disclose any of the information that you provide on your entry form.
24. To the extent permitted by law, details from all entries will be collected and used for the purposes of conducting this Competition (which may include disclosure to third parties for the purpose of processing and conducting the Competition) and for publicity purposes surrounding this Competition. By entering this Competition, entrants consent to the use of their information as described. Entrants may access and/or change their data or consent by following the procedures in the Promoter's privacy policy which is available at <https://fleetcard.com.au/privacy-policy/>

General terms

25. The Promoter reserves the right to verify the validity of entries and to disqualify any entry or refuse to award a Prize, including where the qualifying transaction has been reversed or refunded, where false or misleading details have been given by a contestant or a contestant has behaved in a fraudulent or dishonest manner, or otherwise than in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

26. The Promoter also reserves the right to disqualify any entry or refuse to award a Prize where the contestant's FleetCard account has been cancelled or suspended or is in arrears.
27. Failure by the Promoter to enforce any of its rights at any stage does not constitute a waiver of those rights.
28. The Promoter and any other agencies associated with this Competition will not be responsible for any late, lost or misdirected entries, including but not limited to entries not received due to technical problems.
29. To the fullest extent permitted by law and without limiting any other conditions of entry, the Promoter may, in its discretion, terminate, modify or suspend the Competition, subject to any directions given by any relevant authority. All entrants participating in the Competition at the point of termination, modification or suspension of the Competition will be notified by the Promoter in writing. In the event of modification or suspension of the Competition, the entrant may choose to terminate their participation in the Competition at no cost.
30. Except for any liability that cannot by law be excluded, the Promoter (including its respective officers, employees and agents) excludes all liability (including negligence), for any personal injury; or any loss or damage (including loss of opportunity); whether direct, indirect, special or consequential, arising in any way out of the Competition.
31. The Promoter and any other agencies associated with this Competition will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever that may be suffered or sustained, directly or indirectly, or for any personal injury suffered or sustained by any contestant or Prize winner, in connection with the Prize, except for any liability that cannot be excluded by law. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions is intended to limit your rights under the Australian Consumer Law (Schedule 2 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2011).
32. If any person disputes any aspect of the Competition or these Terms and Conditions, they should contact the Promoter in writing at customer@bfcards.com.au . In the event of such a dispute, the Promoter will immediately try to resolve the claim. The Promoter's decision in relation to any aspect of the dispute is final and binding and no further correspondence will be entered into.
33. These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the state of New South Wales in the Commonwealth of Australia and any disputes will be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the court of New South Wales.
